ILLUSTRATED GUIDE TO NEW YORK.

What was formerly the CITY OF NEW YORK, is now one of five Boroughs of the GREATER NEW YORK (containing a population of 3,500,000), and is officially known as "BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN."

It is of this "Manhattan" our Souvenir treats.

It will be found of great assistance as indicating interesting and desirable places to visit in this, the most interesting City of the World. The stranger in our midst can find his way without difficulty to any points of interest shown in this book. The network of cars, surface or elevated (the fares being only five cents and largely facilitated by transfers) places the entire City and the outlying territory equally at his command.

It will be observed that the views begin at the southern point of the City and proceed consecutively north to 185th Street.

Following the illustrations will be found information as to various institutions, organizations, &c., valuable for reference, and an added interest to our Souvenir.
